The Airshow Acts

Kent flies all or any combo of three totally different airshow acts starting with a comedy act in which an aileron actually falls off the airplane along with other parts.

The next act is a RV or pickup truck top landing.

The last act is (deadstick) act with power off and the propeller stopped from 6000 feet above the ground coasting to a stop at show center with the airplane in the hand of the announcer .

Kent and Warren also offer a dual aerobatic routine with the Interstate Cadet and either Warren's Edge monoplane or his Clipped Wing Taylorcraft.
